

THE SPANISH MUSTANG FOUNDATION

NEWSLETTER - DECEMBER, 2018 VOL. 8

Our mission is to educate the public about the Spanish Mustang and the need to protect and perpetuate the breed.

This year we saw the loss of the Brislaw's Cayuse Ranch in Oshoto, WY, the original home of the Spanish Mustang horse. We are deeply saddened by the end of this era. The Cayuse has been the source of many great Spanish Mustang bloodlines, and has given us the great joy of seeing the horses live on open range as natural as if they were in the wild.

The horses have been relocated to various new owners, The Spanish Mustang Preserve in Wisconsin, and Paha Ponies Spanish Mustangs in Wyoming. Paha Ponies, owner, Adam Edwards, has taken the last 100 of the Cayuse horses to his home on Victoria Bush's ranch in Hulett, Wyoming. Adam is taking care of the horses with the generosity of Victoria Bush and donations from all of you who care about the Cayuse horses. Please contact Adam Edwards at 307-281-2412, or e-mail pahaponies@gmail.com if you are interested in adopting a horse or helping him care for the horses.

The Spanish Mustang Preserve, a 501(c)3 in Wisconsin started by Dick and Cindy Kahlo have taken in more than a hundred horses. They too are in need of donations to help feed and care for the horses. Their contact information is on their website SpanishMustangPreserve.org. Josie Brislaw will be keeping a small band of horses for breeding and will be helping both Paha Ponies and the Spanish Mustang Preserve in their efforts to save the horses.

The Spanish Mustang Foundation is appealing to you all to help us keep these horses in hay and veterinary care. We continue to help however we can to care for Spanish Mustangs throughout the country. Your donation can be used however you designate. Only through your donations can we feel assured of the survival of the Spanish Mustang horses. We deeply appreciate all the support we receive and could not do it without your help. A special thank you to Adam Edwards, Victoria Bush, Josie Brislaw, Dick and Cindy Kahlo for giving a home to these special horses.

Thank you,

Donna Mitchell
